

Tour Overview

Today, it will be a different day. You will leave the comfort of the city in Havana to go to a unique area in Cuba characterized by its mogotes and extensive areas of tobacco plantations. Discover the Valley of Viñales, located in Pinar del Rio, the westernmost province of the island.

DAY 1

VIÑALES

07:30AM. Bus pick-up. During this almost 3-hour ride you will listen to the explanations of our expert guide. Enjoy a panoramic view of the area at the first stop, the well-known Mirador de los Jazmines. Then, you will visit the famous Cueva del Indio (Indian's Cave) and walk inside the cave for approximately 250 meters. A small motor boat will take you on a 10-minute ride down the San Vicente subterranean river to the exit of the cave. Afterwards, you will continue to a Vega, a tobacco plantation where you will meet some local farmers, and they will explain you first hand everything related to the plantation and harvesting process of this precious crop. As it's lunch time, enjoy a traditional Cuban lunch at an agro-ecological farm and take some minutes to picture the well known Mural de la Prehistoria, a 120 meters long mural painted on a mogote (rock formation) named Pita.
